Purpose Statement

Franklin United Methodist Church is a fellowship of believers who have come together as a family of faith. Together we have established the following purpose, vision, and mission statement:

Purpose:

Willing and ready to follow and serve Jesus Christ.

Vision:

Franklin UMC shares God's love, Christ's sacrifice, and our faith for the salvation of the world.

Mission:

We believe in Jesus Christ whom we follow, serve, and share.

Key Verse:

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.” John 3:16 & 17

POLLY'S PONDERING: THE REST OF THE STORY

Yesterday in worship we were asked to pray for a young man named Chad. He is attending the same mission outreach school as Katie Kamas. The request asked us to pray for him because of the recent loss of his parents in a fire.

When I was in sixth grade I had a bicycle accident which ended me in the hospital with a broken jaw. I lay there with my teeth wired shut and my chin stitched up. I had plenty of time to think about the words of the doctor who said that “another ¼ of an inch and I would have been dead.” Not the best bedside manner. Thoughts swirled. I did not have a background of faith tradition to pull from. In fact, other than my grandfather’s funeral just a year or so earlier, I can’t remember anything faith related.

My pain was not too bad, especially if I didn’t try to laugh. But, my discomfort was really high. It had nothing to do with me and everything to do with the boy across the hall. He was on the children’s wing as this was long before specialty burn units. I heard his suffering before I heard the explanation.

“Stop, you’re tearing my skin!”

The sound of his cry was so penetrating. It reached right into my heart and into my mind and has stayed with me through time. So, Sunday when we talked about the two families that had experienced loss by fire, I was immediately transported back to the room across the hall from the boy whose cabin hot water tank had exploded. I often wonder about him, his recovery, his relationship with God.

Others were worried about Chad as well. He was in the hospital recovering from a broken bone, when the news of his parent’s death reached the leaders. A few of them went together ready to share the news and to minister to Chad. What they didn’t expect was Chad to minister to them. Upon hearing the news Chad asked if they could worship, right there, right then. In the midst of his pain and the grief-filled circumstance, Chad wanted – needed – to worship.

One of the earliest converts to Christianity, Paul, wrote these words, now recorded in Philippians Chapter 4:10-13.

“I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through Him who gives me strength. Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles.”

It is clear to me that Chad, not only knows this scripture, but has taken it into his heart. It has become part of who he is. And he is living it. Imagine yourself standing there ready to minister to one who is truly in grief only to find that you are the one to whom ministry is being given. Let us continue to join Chad in prayer as he acknowledged the God who gives and takes away, but who always is worthy of our praise. And let us agree with Chad, that he can do all things through Christ who gives him strength.”

And the rest of the story, will be ours to learn, to tell, and to live. See you all Sunday as we worship the One who is indeed worthy of our praise.

We are already planning fundraisers for the upcoming mission trip. And looking at our options of mission location. One possibility is in Memphis, Tennessee. We are asking for prayer warriors to stand in the gap for our youth and to pray for God's guidance as we plan the mission trip.

Music Note:

Music in the church is so important! How wonderful it is that God led me to this church where we have a mixture of music! The old hymns like "Nearer, my God to Thee" are weaved in with upbeat praise music every Sunday. Our band, Faithful Nation, provides today's songs with Christina Martin's lilting voice. We hope to have them more in the near future. The choir is going to start working on Christmas selections. We may sing a duet with the Children's Choir. Watch for notices at the end of this month for the children's practice times. The Sunshine Strummers are booked up until Christmas. We always have a great time performing. If you have an interest in joining the choir or the ukulele band, please contact any of our members. We always love new people!

"Sing"cerely, Rhonda

The FUMP Corner

*...But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.
Joshua 24:15, NIV*

It has been an exciting start to the 2018-2019 school year. Our classrooms are filled with lots of smiling faces and energy. The FUMP staff has not disappointed, as they arrive each day with planned activities to fill the children's hearts with God's love.

We have celebrated several memorable days at school from birthdays to Grandparent's Day. On September 13th the annual Teddy Bear Tea Party was held. The FUMC Activities Building was filled to almost capacity with grandparents (by blood or by love), aunts, uncles, moms, dads, and friends. The children presented their families with specialized cards they had made. It was a heart-warming event.

October will begin so many fun filled Fall events at FUMP. The Pumpkin Patch will be open from October 17th-October 31st. The hours will be 3:30 – 6:30 Monday through Friday and 12:30-6:30 Saturdays and Sundays. If you love Fall and have been looking for a place to volunteer, the Pumpkin Patch is the place to be. Contact Sherry Buchanan or LeAnn Lennie for more information or to sign-up. Thank you for your prayers, love and support.

In Christ,

Thank You

Dear Franklin United Methodist Church,

Y'all are the best!! Thank you again for so generously allowing us to use your facility to hold our sewing camp this year. Your willingness to let us use your fellowship hall as a "workshop" for the week and display our workmanship is truly a blessing.

We would like to let you know that in addition to making projects for ourselves, we used this opportunity to make bibs and burp cloths for the Hope Pregnancy Center. We also began work on a "Let's Go to the Beach" quilt that will help raise funds for the Robertson County Fair.

Thank you again for giving us a place to have fun and learn sewing skills and for helping us help others.
