Purpose Statement

Franklin United Methodist Church is a fellowship of believers who have come together as a family of faith. Together we have established the following purpose, vision, and mission statement:

Purpose:

Willing and ready to follow and serve Jesus Christ.

Vision:

Franklin UMC shares God's love, Christ's sacrifice, and our faith for the salvation of the world.

Mission:

We believe in Jesus Christ whom we follow, serve, and share.

Key Verse:

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.” John 3:16-17

POLLY'S PONDERING

Praise the LORD from heaven! Praise God on the heights! Do the same, you young men - young women too! - you who are old together with you who are young. Psalm 148:1 and 13

This is one of my favorite pictures. It is John's Dad's hand holding his Great Granddaughter, Cadie's hands. There is so much captured in the photo. You can see the evidence of a life well lived in the bent and aged hand of Herb. You can see the fresh new life just begun in the smooth unwrinkled small infant hands of Cadie. In this embrace you can see the connection of two generations and the embrace is not a mere passing. It is just the beginning of a meaningful relationship that bridges the gap between years.

In this modern world in which we live, where more and more families are geographically separated due to jobs and the like, this image is even more important. Fewer children are cared for by older family members and instead their care is outsourced. More and more aging populations are choosing to live in closed retirement communities (over 50 in which there are no families with children living). More families are working two jobs and longer hours making extended family or neighborhood get togethers a luxury rather than the norm.

And yet today churches are still one of the few natural intergenerational spaces. But even there we often separate things by age. Some churches even have Sunday School at the same time worship is happening, which sadly assures that the services will be less and less intergenerational.

This gathering of the family of faith in time and space with young and old is Biblical. "you who are old together with you who are young" that is what the Psalmist says. In Titus Chapter 2, we are called as older women and men to teach and train the younger generation. You can't do that without a connection, a relationship. 1 Timothy 4:12 tells the young to teach by example and not be put down by their youthful age. You see the scripture is clear, we learn from one another. Our connection - our relationship with those who are not our own age matters. These relationships are the thread that keeps kids connected to church. It is the emotional connection that many ageing adults need during some of the loneliest and most isolating years. When these relationships are strong young and old feel at home in a gathering of any age. My own family has embraced this truth for a long time. Some of my own children's best friends are two generations older than them. And some of the most profound lessons in faith I have learned came from youth in the churches where I have served in ministry both as a professional and a volunteer. I still treasure the hands of a four-year-old placed upon my head at a local restaurant dinner table following a healing service where I had anointed and placed my hands upon those who came up for prayer. She looked directly into my eyes; the anointing oil still evidenced on her small bang covered forehead. Her sweet words have long been forgotten but not the power of the moment. I had been prayed for by one filled with compassion, and modeling what she had learned through intergenerational worship where she was not deemed too young to participate. And when she said Amen, I agreed yes LORD, let it be so. Amen

The FUMP CORNER

He is risen...He is alive! We are eternally grateful for the sacrifice God made by sending His only son to take away our sins. Just the other night my three sweet little granddaughters spent the night. While taking their bath I overheard the eight-year-old talking to the five-year-old about sin. She was saying that she wished there was no sin in this world. I tend to agree with her that our world would be so much better without sin. The conversation then went to what Heaven would be like and how we will have a beautiful mansion, everyone will be happy, no pain, no sin...you catch the drift. Straight from the mouths of babes-I love to hear small children's conversations. Both of these precious granddaughters once attended FUMP and go to their own church. To teach the children and their families about God's love is our purpose at the preschool.

Our Annual Easter Egg Hunt will be April 6th at the preschool. There are two types of kiddos at the hunt. Some will race to get as many eggs as they can, while the others pick up one and are ready to open it. It is a delight to watch.

I want to personally thank the Preschool Board members for their leadership and support. At our last board meeting, we discussed the finances, day-to-day operations of the preschool, and starting the interview process for an Assistant Director-yes, I said Assistant Director. Our amazing Maria Cottrell will be leaving to find a full-time job with benefits. She will be missed to say the least.

Enrollment for the 2021-2022 school year will open April 13th for our current enrollment and May 4th for new students.

I ask that you join me in seeking God's will and guidance for these specific prayers:

- Assistant Director interview and selection process
- Enrollment for the upcoming school year
- Training for current staff & any new staff for the next year
- Wisdom for myself to lead the staff according to God's will

In Christ,
Sherry Buchanan,
Director FUMP

April Mission of the Month U.M. ARMY

U.M. ARMY is an acronym which stands for United Methodist Action Reach-Out Mission by Youth. U.M. ARMY’s mission is: “To provide Christ-centered missions that serve people in need and promote spiritual growth and leadership development in youth and young adults.”

U.M. ARMY mission programs are an opportunity for youth, young adults and adult leaders to experience Christian growth through mission, worship and fellowship. Individual participants and church groups combine their strengths with those of other groups to meet home repair and maintenance needs of those unable to help themselves.

U.M. ARMY has been in mission since 1979. Our program is constantly growing in size and territory. We have managed to touch many lives over those years. Annually we have approximately 5,000 participants working on about 2,000 projects and now have several mission models that serve throughout the year.
